8 Q. Okay. Who is the manager at the plant?

9 A. You mean the factory?

10 Q. Yes. Sorry. The factory.

11 Q. Who is the main person in charge, to your understanding.

12 A. I think it's our GM, Mr. Gao.

13 (Mark Liew's Deposition on February 21, 2017 at 268:9-15.)

14 Defendant DG has been paying for the legal fees for Defendants Mr. Liew and Cy Ng as to the 15 State Action now pending. (Trevino Affid. at ¶15 and Ex. M.)

16 I. FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE, RULES 55 AND 585

17 On November 28, 2017, at 9 a.m., in the State action 16CV301867 at the Superior Court
 18 of Santa Clara, Department 6, Honorable Judge Zaynor held a hearing for the motion by Plaintiff
 19 for a default judgment against Defendant DG. (Id., Ex. A at p. 1:20-23.) The Court issued an 20 Order re: Motion for Entry of Default on December 8, 2017. (Id.) The Court found that that the 21 procedural requirements of Code of Civil Procedure ("CCP") section of 585 were identical to 22 those of FRCP, rule 55. (Id. at p. 4:15-17.) The Court found that Federal courts apply FRCP, rule 23 55 regarding entry of default judgment, even when a plaintiff seeks a default judgment under
 24 Article 15 of the Hague Convention on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial
 25 Documents in Civil and Commercial Matters ("The Hague Convention"). (Id. at p. 3:23-27.) The 26 Court determined that Plaintiff in a Federal action must request, or obtain, an entry of default by 27
 28

1 the clerk as required under FRCP 55, before moving for Default judgment under Article 15.¹

2 Pursuant to FRCP, rule 55(a), when a "party against whom a judgment for affirmative
3 relief sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend, and that failure is shown by affidavit or 4 otherwise, the clerk must enter the party's default." (FRCP, rule 55(a).) Federal courts apply
5 FRCP, rule 55 regarding entry of default judgments, even when obtaining or requesting entry of 6 default judgment under Article 15 of the Hague Convention. (Id. at p. 3:23-27².)

7 II. THE HAGUE CONVENTION

8 The United States and China are signatories of the Convention on the Service Abroad of 9 Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents in the Civil or Commercial Matters, done at the Hague, on 10 November 15, 1965. (Trevino Affid. at Ex. B, ¶2.) China accepted the provision stated in Article
11 15 of the Hague Service Convention that allows the forum court judge to issue judgment even if 12 no certificate of service or delivery has been received, if certain requisite conditions are fulfilled.
13 (Id. at ¶¶'s 6 and 7.) The requirements are: (1) the documents were transmitted by one of the 14 methods provided for in the Convention, (2) at least 6 months have elapsed since the date of the 15 transmission of the documents, and (3) no certificate of any kind has been received, even though
16 every reasonable effort has been made to obtain it through the competent authorities of the State
17 addressed. (Id. at ¶7.)

18 The documents were transmitted to the Central Authority in China and received and 19 signed for by the Central Authority for China on November 22, 2017. (Id.) More than 6 months
20 have passed since the documents were received by the Central Authority in China. (Id.) And no
21 certificate has been received, of any kind, and requests for status on the service of the documents
22 have been, and continue to be, submitted to the Zhiying Li and Guan Qingtian at the office of the

25 ¹ ORDER RE: MOTION FOR ENTRY OF DEFAULT JUDGMENT. Judge Zaynor, December 8, 2017, stated "Code of Civil Procedure
26 are virtually identical to those of FRCP, rule 55. (Order Re: Motion for Entry of Default Judgment at p. 4:15-17.)

27 ² ORDER RE: MOTION FOR ENTRY OF DEFAULT JUDGMENT. Judge Zaynor's Order cited: Thomas v. Biocene Sclavo (N.D.N.Y., 28 Feb. 4, 19987, No. CIVA94CV1568RSP/DNH) 1998 WL 51861, at 2-3 [noting that the plaintiff attempted to follow the required two-set process set forth in FRCP, rule 55 and first obtain entry of default by the court clerk prior to moving for default judgment;
because of uncertainty regarding service of process in Italy the clerk referred the question of entry of default to the court; the court determined that it was appropriate for the clerk to enter the defaults of the defendants, the court could consider whether default judgment should also enter against them] (Order Re: Motion for Entry of Default Judgment at p. 4:8-15.)

1 Central Authority for China (Ministry of Justice) on a regular basis since transmission to China.

2 (Id.)

3 III. THE DEFENDANT HAS FAILED TO FILE A PLEADING OR MOTION PERMITTED BY LAW

4 Pursuant to FRCP, rule 55(a), the "party against whom the judgment for affirmative relief
5 is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend, and that failure is shown to by affidavit or 6 otherwise, the clerk must enter the party's default." (FRCP, rule 55(a).) To date, Defendant DG
7 has not presented itself to defend itself in the matter, even though, it is undisputed that it has 8 actual notice of this action. Further, as provided by the Hague Convention, if six months have 9 elapsed from the date of transmission of the documents (summons and complaints), the 10 documents were transmitted by one of the methods provided by the Hague Convention and no
11 certificate of any kind has been received and reasonable efforts have been made to obtain it
12 through the competent authorities, then the Convention allows for the forum court judge to issue
13 judgment, even if no certificate of service or delivery has been received. (Trevino Affid., Ex. B at 14 ¶¶'s 6 and 7.) Therefore, SinCo has met their burden under the Hague Convention and Defendant
15 DG continues to fail to file a pleading or defend itself, even though they have actual knowledge 16 of this litigation and continues to conduct business in the forum.

17 IV. DEFENDANT DG IS NEITHER A MINOR NOR AN INCOMPETENT PERSON

18 The defendant can neither be a minor or incompetent person for purpose of requesting an 19 entry of default. (FRCP, rule 55(b)(1); see also First American Bank, N.A. v. United Equity Corp.
20 (DDC 1981) 89 FRD 81,86.) Here, Defendant DG is a Chinese company showing that they are 21 neither a minor nor an incompetent person. Thereby, this requirement has been met by SinCo in 22 its request for entry of default.

23 V. ENTRY OF DEFAULT BY COURT CLERK WHEN FOREIGN SERVICE
INVOLVED

24 As directed by Judge Zaynor, FRCP, rules 55 is similar to CCP 585, and request for entry
25 of default must first be undertaken prior to requesting entry of default from the Court. (Trevino
26 Affid., Ex. A p. 4:15-17.) Case law provides that a clerk was authorized to enter a default against 27 defendants, finding that the plaintiffs had properly served defendants under the Hague
28

1 Convention (Curtis v. Shinsachi Pharmaceutical Inc. (C.D. Cal. 2014) 45 F.Supp.3d 1190, 1197
2 [Court subsequently authorized the Clerk to enter default against Shin and Shin Sachi, finding 3 that Curtis properly served Defendants under the Hague Convention on the Service Abroad of 4 Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents and Canadian law].) As shown, Plaintiff SinCo has
5 followed the Hague Convention, to which China and the United States are signatories, in service
6 of the Defendant. Therefore, the clerk is authorized to enter default against Defendant DG. SinCo,
7 through the Hague Convention, has made all reasonable attempts to serve Defendant DG who
8 continues to abuse the intricacies of service by the Hague Convention to avoid appearing before 9 this Court and depriving SinCo of its justice. For example Defendant DG has availed itself of 10 federal law in an effort to obtain no less than 15 trademarks, without success.

11 VI. CONCLUSION

12 Plaintiff SinCo has provided the accompanying Affidavit of Michelle G. Trevino that 13 establishes the facts for default, along with the request for entry of default by the clerk.

14 The above stated facts are set forth in the accompanying Affidavit of Michelle G. Trevino, 15 filed herewith.
